

DI-365-75

31 January 1975

MEMORANDUM FOR: Associate Deputy Director for Intelligence

SUBJECT : Request to Talk to a Seminar
at Georgetown University

1. Dr. Penelope Thunberg, Adjunct Professor of Economics at Georgetown University and Director of Economic Research, Center for Strategic and International Studies has asked me to talk to her seminar on Applied Economic Theory on 12 February 1975. The students come from Georgetown's Graduate School and its School of Foreign Science.

2. I request permission to speak to this seminar on trends in population and food production. I will, of course, not discuss any classified information with this group. It is understood that I will be identified as an employee of CIA and that I am responsible for the recently declassified paper, [ ] (Potential Implications of Trends in World Population, Food Production, and Climate).

STAT

STAT

International Functional Staff
Office of Political Research

ADMINISTRATIVE - INTERNAL USE ONLY

Approved For Release 2005/08/24 : CIA-RDP80B01495R001100080040-1

SUBJECT: Request to Talk to a Seminar at Georgetown University

CONCURRENCES:

STAT

[Redacted Signature Box]

2/3/75
Date

2/3/75
Date

5 Feb 75
Date

Director of Security

STAT

STAT

STAT

APPROVAL: [Redacted] should make it crystal clear to the seminar that the views expressed in [Redacted] are in no way the official view of the Agency and that, in fact, there is serious disagreement within the Agency regarding her findings.

[Redacted Signature Box]
Associate Deputy Director for Intelligence

6 Feb 75
Date

Approved For Release 2005/08/24 : CIA-RDP80B01495R001100080040-1

ADMINISTRATIVE - INTERNAL USE ONLY

US 50403